Retirement of the Rev. Clement Carelse: As you may be aware, Rev. Clement Carelse announced his well-deserved retirement in May 2020 after a 12+ year music director career at St. Peter's Erindale. He had been planning to take on an exciting new post-retirement music adventure at St. Peter's Cathedral in Charlottetown, PEI. Due to COVID-19, this opportunity was postponed and Clem generously agreed to continue his music directorship on a part-time basis for the past 18 months. We have been thankful for Clem's presence and music ministry during these difficult times, under a multitude of restrictions and technology challenges.

Clem will now officially be starting his new post in mid-April. We hope to put a team in place in early spring to commence work to recruit a new music director. It is our intention that the hiring of a music director will follow the Bishop's appointment of a new incumbent so that our new incumbent is involved in the process (our new incumbent and music director must work closely together!).

We wanted to let you know that we've put plans in place to carry on our music ministry at St. Peter's with an interim team effective February 1, 2022. Lori Dolloff has agreed to take on the leadership of our choir and Lori & Mark Matterson have kindly agreed to share the music director role until Fall 2022 (by which time we hope to have a new choir/music director in place). We are also blessed to have Mark Matterson continuing to serve as Handbell Choir Director.

We would like to honour Clem's legacy at our parish with a celebration of his music ministry on Sunday, January 30, 2022 after the 10:00 am service. If you would like to be part of this event planning team, please contact Ken Baxter at kenb@nor-del.com.

Please note the special times for our services on January 30th which will be at 8 am and 10 am and that the Rev. Deacon Clem Carelse will be the homilist at both services.

Kudoboard (Electronic Card) - If you want to send best wishes to Clem for his retirement, we have set up a Kudoboard at the following link: www.kudoboard.com/boards/HKcug0Xj where you can post a message, picture or video. For those unable to add to the Kudoboard, you can send a card or note to the church, Attention: Clem Carelse, and we will get it to him.

Back to Diocesan Red Phase: As of Monday, January 10, we are back into the Diocesan Red Phase of regulations dealing with the pandemic. The Deacon's Cupboard is considered an essential outreach ministry and will continue to operate on Wednesday mornings from 9-11am. Since the pandemic began, Belinda Morrow and the volunteers at the Deacon's Cupboard have done an amazing job putting practices in place to keep both the guests and the volunteers safe.

The church building is closed for the time being for other regular activities and in-person Sunday worship. If anyone comes into the church to perform an essential function that cannot be done off-site, masks must be worn, and all other pandemic protocols observed. Funerals and weddings can continue to happen with permission of the Bishop and strict guidelines in place. For updates, and to download the full list of Red Phase directives please visit: <https://www.toronto.anglican.ca/pari.../covid-19-updates/>

Please note the Church office will be open on Wednesdays and Fridays so you can pick up your 2022 Offertory envelopes or drop off donations.

Happy New Year from the Parish Selection Committee. We wanted to let you know that Derek Patterson has had to step away from the PSC as Chair and member for personal reasons, and Carol Bailey has assumed the Chair position. As we enter 2022, the PSC is meeting weekly and has begun aggregating our survey and round table feedback and building our Parish Profile for submission to the Bishop. We would again like to thank everyone who took part in a Round Table session or filled out the PSC Survey.

*In lieu of flowers, a donation has been made to St. Peter's and to the Glory of God in loving memory of my wife, Barbara.
Given by Bert and family*

Hymn

Jesus, Come, for We Invite You

1. Jesus, come, for we invite you,
guest and master, friend and Lord;
now, as once at Cana's wedding,
speak, and let us hear your word:
lead us through our need or doubting,
hope be born and joy restored.
2. Jesus, come! Transform our pleasures,
guide us into paths unknown;
bring your gifts, command your servants;
let us trust in you alone:
Though your hand may work in secret,
all shall see what you have done.
3. Jesus, come in new creation, heaven brought near in power divine;
give your unexpected glory,
changing water into wine:
rouse the faith of your disciples--
come, our first and greatest sign!
4. Jesus, come! Surprise our dullness;
make us willing to receive
more than we can yet imagine,
all the best you have to give:
Let us find your hidden riches,
taste your love, believe and live!

The Gathering of the Community

Officiant: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
be with you all.

People: And also with you.

Officiant: Almighty God,

All: to you all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from you no secrets are hidden.
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit,
that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Glory to God (Sung)

Officiant: Glory to God in the highest,

All: and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly king,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy upon us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

All: For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Prayer for the Day

Officiant: Let us pray.

Almighty God,
your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ is the light of the world.
May your people,
illumined by your word and sacraments,
shine with the radiance of his glory,
that he may be known, worshipped, and obeyed
to the ends of the earth;
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

All: Amen.

1st Reading Isaiah 62:1-5

Reader: A reading from Isaiah.

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent,
and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest,
until her vindication shines out like the dawn,
and her salvation like a burning torch.
The nations shall see your vindication,
and all the kings your glory;
and you shall be called by a new name
that the mouth of the Lord will give.

You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the Lord,
and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.
You shall no more be termed Forsaken,
and your land shall no more be termed Desolate;
but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her,
and your land Married;
for the Lord delights in you,
and your land shall be married.
For as a young man marries a young woman,
so shall your builder marry you,
and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride,
so shall your God rejoice over you.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.
People: Thanks be to God.

2nd Reading 1 Corinthians 12:1-11

Reader: A reading from first Corinthians.

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak. Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says 'Let Jesus be cursed!' and no one can say 'Jesus is Lord' except by the Holy Spirit.

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gospel John 2:1-11

Gospeller: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People: Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, 'They have no wine.' And Jesus said to her, 'Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come.' His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.' Now standing there were six stone water-jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, 'Fill the jars with water.' And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, 'Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward.' So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, 'Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now.' Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

Gospeller: The Gospel of Christ.
People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily The Rev. Maria Nightingale

The Creed (Alternate from CofE, authorized)

Officiant: Let us declare our faith in God:

All: We believe in God the Father,
from whom every family
in heaven and on earth is named.

We believe in God the Son,
who lives in our hearts through faith,
and fills us with his love.

We believe in God the Holy Spirit,
who strengthens us
with power from on high.

We believe in one God;
Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

Hymn God, Whose Giving Knows No Ending

1. God, whose giving knows no ending,
from your rich and endless store--
nature's wonder, Jesus' wisdom, costly cross, grave's shattered door--
gifted by you, we turn to you,
offering up ourselves in praise;
thankful song shall rise forever,
gracious Donor of our days.

- 2. Skills and time are ours for pressing toward the goals of Christ, your Son: all at peace in health and freedom, races joined, the church made one. Now direct our daily labour, lest we strive for self alone. Born with talents, make us servants fit to answer at your throne.

- 3. Treasure, too, you have entrusted, gain through powers your grace conferred, ours to use for home and kindred, and to spread the gospel word. Open wide our hands in sharing, as we heed Christ's ageless call, healing, teaching, and reclaiming, serving you by loving all.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
